Appendix A:

Directions:
Read each of the following scenarios. Determine whether the situation is an example of cyber slander or not and why.

A. After an argument with a classmate, Melinda receives fifty texts a day stating:
   “You are a stuck up fake and I’m coming to get you.”

B. A student sets up an amateur DJ company and a rival student tries to ruin his business by posting made up statements on Twitter, Yelp and blog sites such as, “I used this DJ and he was an hour and a half late for my party”.

C. A boyfriend and girlfriend break up after she cheats on him. The boy retaliates by uploading several embarrassing videos of her on YouTube.
Appendix B:

1. If you were to give advice to a younger sibling, cousin, or student about cyber-bullying, what would you say?

2. Why does bullying occur more online than face to face?

3. Should cyber-bullying be punishable by law or is it freedom of speech?

4. Do you foresee cyber-bullying getting better or worse?

5. Where does most online cyber-bullying take place?

6. What is your experience with cyber-bullying?